

Craig Darian, Co-Chairman & CEO Of Occidental Entertainment Group Holdings, Purchases 50% Shareholder Interest in the Corporation

Los Angeles, CA (January 21, 2014) Occidental Entertainment Group Holdings is pleased to announce Craig Darian has exercised his option to purchase a 50% shareholder interest in the company. Darian will continue in his role of Co-Chairman and CEO of the company.

Since partnering with Albert Sweet, who remains a Co-Chairman, but retired in 2004, the company has grown in many notable respects including building a state-of-the-art sound stage, acquiring more properties, improved owned and operated buildings, increased occupancy levels, spent millions of dollars on more lighting & grip, and creating more jobs during a recession.

Hollywood-Based Occidental Entertainment Group Holdings, Inc., owner and operator of numerous sound stages, office buildings, and production support businesses throughout Hollywood, the San Fernando Valley, and the Greater Los Angeles area, just opened the doors to a new multi-million dollar, four-story, state-of-the-art sound stage and office building on the main lot of its Occidental Studios division.

Occidental Entertainment Group Holdings is located in the heart of the entertainment capital of Hollywood, CA. They offer a wide range of services and facilities, which include a dozen sound stages and three dozen office buildings, equipment, and cutting-edge technologies that can accommodate the needs of feature films, episodic television, commercials, corporate advertising, games, music videos and many other business and entertainment-related purposes. Occidental Entertainment Group Holdings is a one stop shop for all production needs.
